

Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG) combines retrieval and language generation.

Embeddings are dense numerical vectors representing text.

ChromaDB is an open-source vector database used for semantic search.

A Cross Encoder reranker improves retrieval quality by rescoring retrieved documents.